Removing the Mask and Putting on the Crown: Claiming our Identity in Jesus

1. Removing the Mask

"Don't you long to shout to those youths who are bustling around you: Fools! Leave those worldly things that shackle the heart and very often degrade it . . . Leave all that and come with us in search of Love!" -St. Josemaria Escriva

"As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people." Matthew 4:18-22 (Gospel/Jan 26th)

"Obedience unites us so closely to God that in a way it transforms us into Him, so that we have no other will but His. If obedience is lacking, even prayer cannot be pleasing to God." St. Thomas Aquinas

"It is not hard to obey when we love the One whom we obey." St. Ignatius of Loyola

"Jesus answered and said to him, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." John 14:23

"Each generation is converted by the saint who contradicts it most." G.K. Chesterton

"See; I come with an inscribed scroll written upon me. I delight to do your will, my God; your law is in my inner being!" Psalm 40:8-9 (Responsorial Psalm/Jan 19th)

2. Putting on the Crown

"You shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you." Isaiah 60:5 (from 1st Reading/Jan 5th)

"John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." (from Gospel/Jan 19th).

"Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." Matthew 3:13-17 (Gospel/Jan 12th).

"The Baptism in the Spirit is not a sacrament, but it is related to several sacraments . . . The Baptism in the Spirit's effectiveness in reactivating baptism consists in this: finally man contributes his part -- namely, he makes a choice of faith, prepared in repentance, that allows the work of God to set itself free and to emanate all its strength. It is as if the plug is pulled and the light is switched on. The gift of God is finally "untied" and the Spirit is allowed to flow like a fragrance in the Christian life." Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, OFM Cap

“Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. Amen.” St. Augustine

3. Heirs Not Slaves

The devil fears hearts on fire with love of God.” St. Catherine of Siena

“As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!” So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.” Galatians 4:6-7 (2nd Reading/Jan 1st)

“We are not some casual and meaningless product of evolution. Each of us is the result of a thought of God. Each of us is willed, each of us is loved, each of us is necessary.” Pope Benedict XVI

*“For God so loved the world that he gave * his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” John 3:16*

*“He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people * did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name.” John 1:10-12*

“As the Father has sent Me, so I send you.” John 20:21

“The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear? The LORD is my life’s refuge; of whom should I be afraid?” Psalm 27:1 (Responsorial Psalm/Jan 26th)

“Your friends were made by God and for God. You remaining silent about Him is the equivalent of making a fear sandwich to feed the evil one. You are serving him. Is that who you want to serve?” Logan Parrish (seminarian) to his sister

“For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.” 2 Timothy 1:7

“And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Matthew 28:20

“This is my daughter, with whom I am well pleased.” Matthew 3:17 (Gospel/Jan 12th)

Mosaic Small Group Information

Mosaic small groups meet once a month for 90 minutes and offer friendship and accountability, but more importantly, they can fill our deepest longings to be truly known and loved. We have put together an amazing Start-Up Series to lead small groups through an authentic four-part discovery period. This tool will allow hostesses of every comfort level to facilitate a small group and create a space for women to grow and discover the truth about God, herself, and virtuous friendships. All women of any faith background are welcome and encouraged to sign up.
